Bud Spillman, Mayor of Superior, came before the Board seeking suggestions or a solution regarding problems with the Town's water line which runs under a county road. Leaks are caused by a local contractor driving heavy equipment over the roadway. The Board had no immediate response, but agreed to consider the situation.

The Board of County Commissioners met this day with the County Elected officials and various department heads regarding county employees salaries for the up-coming 1990-91 fiscal budget year. The Board recommended that since the County's Health insurance had gone up approximately 13.5% that the Board of County Commissioners were considering a 3% raise for all county employees. There were various pros and cons regarding the raise and after further discussion the Chairman of the Board asked that each department submit written staff recommendations to the Board regarding raises and the Board would then make a decision.

Dave Clark, City Attorney for the City of Rawlins, met with the Board regarding the formation of a Solid Waste District which would include Wamsutter and Bairoil and ask that the Board be included in the study that is now being done. After a discussion the Board agreed to meet with the City of Rawlins.

Michael S. Vase, from Vase Emergency Medical Service, and Bob Storti, Director of Castle Rock Hospital District, came before the Board of County Commissioners to make a presentation in regards to a budget request for the fiscal 1990-91 budget year. It was requested that the Board consider a budget amount of $828,000.00 to fund the ambulance service now provided by Vase Emergency Medical Service and Castle Rock Hospital District in Sweetwater County. After a discussion, the Board stated that they would give consideration to the request and a work shop would be held to discuss and finalize the request.

Judge Brad Schroeder, of Green River's County Court, met with the Board to request a new filing system, interior painting of the court building and new office chairs for his office. The requests were granted.

A motion was duly made by John L. Yerkovich, seconded by Fred Radosevich and carried that variances requested by William W. Raddon for Lot 130, Clearview Acres 2nd, Sweetwater County, Wyoming be as follows: Approval for the 3.9 foot variance regarding the front setback and denial of the 2.6 foot variance regarding the side setback.

A motion was duly made by John L. Yerkovich, seconded by Fred Radosevich and carried that the following Proclamation be approved:

P R O C L A M A T I O N

We the undersigned Commissioners for the County of Sweetwater, in the state of Wyoming, do proclaim, in keeping with our state's Centennial celebration that the month of May be a "clean-up, paint-up, and spruce-up" month in preparation for the state's Centennial celebration. This voluntary effort to prepare our county for the statewide summer celebration is in keeping with our heritage of volunteerism and "doing for ourselves" in an attempt to improve our county and state.
